Dear Sir or Madam:

We are very pleased to send you the special 10th issue of IJOS: International Journal of Okinawan Studies, Vol.6.

Our goal is to make IJOS relevant in the field of Okinawan Studies, delving into enduring thoughts on issues, topics, and areas concerning the past, present, and future of Okinawa. Please direct any interested parties to our homepage at http://www.iios.u-ryukyu.ac.jp/ for submission guidelines and let us know of any prospective contributors whose expertise would be in our shared interests. We especially welcome international viewpoints, in hope of bringing new perspectives to this growing interdisciplinary research field. For inquiries regarding ordering back issues or subscribing, please send an email to the IJOS Editorial Committee at <iios@w3.u-ryukyu.ac.jp>.

Thank you very much again for your kind support. We look forward to our further collaboration in the future.

Respectfully yours,

Submission Guidelines

IJOS: International Journal of Okinawan Studies

March 14, 2016

IJOS: International Journal of Okinawan Studies, a peer reviewed journal published by IIOS (International Institute for Okinawan Studies) at the University of the Ryukyus, seeks papers 20 to 30 pages in length on issues, areas, and topics related to Okinawa. Please contact IJOS editors IIOS@w3.u-ryukyu.ac.jp for submission details and manuscript style in English. For the most updated submission guidelines, please visit our Website at http://www.iios.u-ryukyu.ac.jp/

Manuscript Submission

1. The title of the paper, author's or authors' name(s), affiliation(s), and full postal and e-mail addresses should be submitted on a separate sheet (The title page).

2. Contributors should submit one copy of their manuscript to the editor-in-chief of IJOS (the name and address are given on the inside front cover). They should also submit a copy of the manuscript by e-mail attachment.

3. Copyrights of accepted manuscripts belong to IIOS (International Institute for Okinawan Studies).

4. Formatting of English manuscripts for IJOS should follow the APA (American Psychological Association) style. If your manuscript follows other styles such as MLA and Chicago, please indicate it on the title page.

5. Manuscripts should be printed on A4 paper or on letter-size paper with the following format: (a) a margin of 2.5cm (1 inch) should be set for every edge; (b) Text should be double-spaced.

6. Manuscripts should be no longer than 8,000 words. Manuscripts should have an abstract (limited to 200 words in English and 300 characters in Japanese), a body, endnotes, and references. If contributors cannot prepare an abstract in Japanese, ask editors for assistance.

7. Book review should be no longer than 3,500 words including figures, tables, endnotes, and references.

8. The title of the paper should be in 14-point type and centered. A subtitle, if any, should be in 12-point type and centered. Preferable font is either Century or Arial.

9. The abstract, body, endnotes, and references should be in 12-point type.

10. The terms "Abstract," "Endnotes," and "References," as well as section headings, should be in boldface; subsection headings should be in boldface and italics. If endnotes are used, they should follow the body of the paper, and be followed by references.
